

JEROME SILVEY DIED ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Prominent Atlanta Merchant
Passes Away After Long
Illness

After a long illness, extending over a year, Jerome Silvey, one of the oldest and most prominent merchants of Atlanta, passed away Wednesday night at the family residence, 144 Forrest street. He was fifty-four years of age.

At the time of his death Mr. Silvey was president of the Silvey-Tougherty company, of 24 Central avenue, a business which he organized fifteen years ago. He had been continuously at his head ever since. The firm was recently changed from the Silvey-Tougherty company to the Silvey-Tougherty company.

Mr. Silvey, although he is a native of Georgia, did not come to Atlanta until about thirty years ago, at which time he was associated with Silvey & Co. Shortly after making this home he married Miss Alice Dreese, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Dreese, of this city.

Up to the time that Mr. Silvey organized and became the president of the company that bears his name, he remained with the John Silvey company. His sterling character and high business ability soon placed him in the front rank of men of affairs in Atlanta. His new venture was a success from the start and under his excellent leadership the business has grown to be one of the largest of its kind in Atlanta.

Mr. Silvey's activities were not confined entirely to the business world. For years he had been active in church circles, a zealous and untiring worker for the First Baptist church, of which he was a deacon. His loss will be heavily felt by all who knew him. He was a man to whom a friend once made a friend always.

Mr. Silvey is survived by his wife, three daughters, Miss Elizabeth Silvey, Miss Irene Silvey, Mrs. V. B. Whitley; two sisters, Mrs. P. A. Bonar and Mrs. L. E. Board.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the late residence of the deceased Rev. C. W. Daniel, pastor of the First Baptist church. Burial will take place in the Oakland cemetery.

WOMAN GIVES HEIRLOOM TO HOSPITAL'S FUND
Liberal Donations Characterize
Meeting to Raise Money for
— Wesley Hospital

Liberal subscriptions of money and some instances the donation of heirloom jewelry characterized the meeting given by the women of the Wesley Memorial hospital. This meeting, which was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Tucker, was one of the many given for raising funds for the hospital.

While the subscriptions were being taken, one well known lady unfastened from her carriage a valuable heirloom in a heavy gold frame. She gave it as her contribution to the fund. The lady was unable to give the equivalent in cash, but she said that she would make a sacrifice for the most worthy cause. This miniature was given to her family for more than 100 years and was highly prized.

It was announced at the meeting that Mrs. C. C. Candler, of Atlanta, had been a generous contributor to the hospital ever since its establishment. She had agreed to give $5 to the building fund for every $1 raised by the women's auxiliary, provided it was $25,000.

This first meeting of the auxiliary was given over to the taking of subscriptions from the ladies themselves. They will hold another meeting at which plans for raising additional money will be decided.

Mrs. T. H. Kendall, of Chalmers, vice president of the organization, presided at the meeting and made an address and financial statement. Mrs. H. B. Banno is president of the auxiliary, which is a statewide organization. Officers of the ways and means committee, which will plan for the coming year, are: Mrs. W. H. Tucker, chairman; Mrs. M. H. Tucker, secretary; and Mrs. John A. Miller, treasurer.

At the meeting Wednesday attention was called to the fact that the Wesley Memorial hospital owes for more than $100,000 for care of patients and that five out of seven of its charges come from outside of Atlanta, and that patients are taken without regard to their religious denomination.

STATE OFFICERS VISIT
CHIPPWA TRIBE, I. O. R. M.
Chippewa tribe of Red Men, at its regular meeting Tuesday night, was honored by visits from the following state officers of the order:

C. F. Strohger, of Macon, great sachem; J. B. Miller, of Marietta, great senior sagamore; Walter C. Hendrix, of Atlanta, great junior sagamore; Stedley Collier, of Atlanta, chairman of the grand home board of the great council; and Jesse H. Lee, member of the finance committee of the great council.

The visitors witnessed the conferring of degrees on seven candidates, made brief talks.

SAVANNAH MAN TIED TAFT FOR PRESIDENCY
When his return Wednesday from the annual meeting of the American Bar Association at Montreal, Canada, Attorney John L. Tye, of Atlanta, declared that the meeting "has been the most successful in the history of the association." He predicted that next year Peter V. Mahlon, of Savannah, would be chosen president of the association.

Mr. Tye declared that he was Taft in the first ballot, and according to Mr. Tye he would have won out but for the fact that his opponent, the prestige of having been president of the United States.

WEE GIRL DECIDES HER OWN CUSTODY

She Takes Witness Stand and Tells Why Neither Father Nor
Mother Should Have Her

Nine-year-old Margaret Anderson, the daughter of Harry W. Anderson, Jr., appeared in Judge Bell's court Thursday morning when she was put on the witness stand to tell about the trouble between her father and mother. Calm, dignified, absolutely unafraid, she made one of the best witnesses ever on the stand, and in the end it was her opinion in the matter which became the judge's decision.

The hearing was to determine who should have the custody of the little girl. A divorce suit between her parents is pending in the court, and application was made for custody of the child.

When Margaret was put on the stand she said very quietly that she believed the best place for her was with her mother. She said she did not like her father, but she liked her mother very much, but that she thought her mother had not treated her exactly right because she sometimes whipped her when she had done nothing at all.

The father, Mr. W. Anderson, said that she liked her mother very much, but that she thought her mother had not treated her exactly right because she sometimes whipped her when she had done nothing at all.

After hearing the evidence Judge Bell also arrived at the conclusion that the best place for the little girl was with her mother. He ordered that she be placed in the custody of Mrs. Anderson.

The father was ordered to pay $20 a month for the support of the little girl. The divorce hearing will come up later.

DESERTER MAY HAVE TO SERVE TERM IN PRISON
Technically in Case of Albert
W. Dill May Make Affair
Take Any Turn

It may be that Albert W. Dill, who surrendered himself at police headquarters Thursday as a deserter from the army, will have to serve several years in a military prison for his part in the capture of the ship. He may not be punished at all. A technicality may save him, but it depends upon whether or not he is enlisted before September 1, 1914. The police are holding him, waiting information from the military authorities on the point in doubt.

According to the story that fell into Captain Fox's hands Wednesday afternoon, he is twenty-seven years old, single, and has no family. He was captured during the fall of 1912, under the name of A. W. Dill. He was sent to John A. Dill, who was sent to the military prison at St. Joseph, Mo., but did not find the life to his taste and after about eleven days he deserted.

A reward of $50 was offered for his capture. He was captured in the fall of 1912, under the name of A. W. Dill. He was sent to John A. Dill, who was sent to the military prison at St. Joseph, Mo., but did not find the life to his taste and after about eleven days he deserted.

Thaw Trial Pictures To Be Shown At Grand All of Next Week

Jack Wells has secured motion pictures of Harry K. Thaw in his cell at Sherbrooke and a series of motion pictures of the famous trial of Thaw in Canada. These pictures were taken for the Keith and Orpheum circuits with the consent of Thaw and the trial officials in Canada, and will be shown simultaneously in all of the theaters of the two circuits from Portland, Me., to Fresno.

Mr. Wells promises to the Atlanta theatregoers that he would send to the Grand the very newest and the best motion pictures possible to secure means that the Thaw picture will be seen all of next week at the Grand from noon until 10:15 o'clock each night—10 cents admission—along with the popular kinestoscope and black and white first-run features.

When Thaw escaped to Canada and after his confinement in the Mattawan asylum, he was induced to pose for motion pictures, to be exhibited all over the country. He consented to this and the court officials in charge of the trial gave him the use of the cameras in the court room.

The United Booking Office secured the film and Mr. Wells from Birmingham, where he was on a southern tour, set into long distance communication with the authorities and secured a set of the films for immediate use in Atlanta.

The picture will show Thaw in his cell at Sherbrooke. It also will show all of the trial, including all the prominent people from both the United States and Canada, in fact, the whole of the trial, including the principal set forth in a dignified way.

PROGRESSIVE LEAGUE PULLS FOR NEW SCHOOL
A called meeting of the new Davis street school Progressive league will be held in the Davis street school house Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to an announcement from H. M. Taylor, president of the league.

The primary purpose of the league is to secure a new school house for the Davis street school. The league is also interested in the improvement of Davis street and the grading and paving of some of the principal streets in that vicinity. Mayor Woodward and members of council and also the ladies of the neighborhood have been invited to attend the meeting. All voters in the Davis street school district are eligible to membership.

ONLY 42 CHILDREN YET TO BE ASSIGNED PLACES

Superintendent of Schools Station Finds Room for Nearly 1,000 Overflow Pupils

Following a conference with the principals of the white grammar schools of Atlanta Wednesday afternoon, Superintendent of Schools William M. Starns stated that arrangements had been made whereby the 1,000 overflow pupils would be cared for immediately.

Under his plan for the assignment of children among the various school grades it was found that but forty-two had been left out and plans are now under way to place them in a few days.

The task of finding seats for those who were unable to get accommodations the first day was no easy one. The superintendent and principals made every effort to keep each child in his or her own school district rather than make them travel a long distance to class.

There is still some congestion in the English Avenue school, which will make it necessary either to put a new grade in the basement or rent an outside room in the immediate neighborhood. Which course will be taken has not yet been decided upon.

On Thursday afternoon the superintendent will hold a conference with the principals of the Edgewood, Inman Park and Highland Avenue schools with a view to a distribution of their overflow to the new Moreland Avenue school, to be completed by the end of the week. The plan is to establish five grades here to relieve the three other schools mentioned.

SHOT BY POLICEMAN; NOW HE WANTS DAMAGE

W. C. Munday Will Get Damage, Too, for Bullet Intended for Dog

An entirely new phase of the activities of Police Chief Beavers' new famous "vice squad" developed Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the claims committee of council, when W. C. Munday, of 419 Glenn street, petitioned for damages on account of being bitten by a policeman on the capital grounds.

Mr. Munday stated that two dogs were raising a disturbance around the capital one night and two policemen, whose names he did not know, went to "chase" them away. He said one of the policemen shot at the dogs, and the bullet struck him instead, inflicting a painful but not serious flesh wound, which necessitated his going to the Grady hospital and losing considerable time from his business.

Councilman Jesse Wood, chairman of the claims committee, agreed with Mr. Munday that the city should reimburse him, at least to the extent of paying his hospital bill and nominal sum for damages.

THEATRES

(conditions of initial performance at the local theatre are written by the staff of The Journal staff. All other matter appearing in this column is furnished by the theatre management.)

FOREVER—Vanderbilt.
LYRIC—The Call of the Heart.
GRAND—Kismet.
EDGEMOND—My Dixie Girl.

Friday night the Atlanta will get its first season opening when "The Merry Countess" is given. This is a $2 show, but is being offered at special prices on account of the opening. The company is up to a high standard and will be materially assisted by an orchestra of fifteen Friday night in order to get the full beauty of the Johann Strauss music. This music is the prettiest music ever written and is sure to create a furore in Atlanta. The play has been praised in all the southern cities it has visited. Here are some of the criticisms.

Savannah Morning News: "Attractively costumed and staged and with a company containing both singers and dancers, 'The Merry Countess' pleased last night's audience. And by the name John Russell, it is still having a thousand. Manager Rork has never thought a bad production to the fact that it has been seen here in many seasons. It is a regular 'Chocolate Soldier'."

It is a positive fact that Frank Hall and Inez Patterson, the dancers who top the bill at the Lyric this week, constitute the strongest drawing card offered by the theatre in a great many weeks. While it is a fact that this week is an exceptionally good entertainment, it is true that the Lyric, the champion tango and turkey trot dancers have surely proven to be a magnet that attracts people to the theatre.

It was no easy task to follow the lead of the Lyric, but the Lyric has been seen here in many seasons. It is a regular "Chocolate Soldier".

It is a positive fact that Frank Hall and Inez Patterson, the dancers who top the bill at the Lyric this week, constitute the strongest drawing card offered by the theatre in a great many weeks. While it is a fact that this week is an exceptionally good entertainment, it is true that the Lyric, the champion tango and turkey trot dancers have surely proven to be a magnet that attracts people to the theatre.

The bill for next week will introduce some charming features, and now that the real money is on at the busy theater seats are in great demand for all future performances.

A play that touches the heart and stirs all the sentiment that is in you and makes you sympathetic with the American girl who barters soul and body for an English title, afterward to lead a most miserable life, and finally the great satisfaction that one feels when Lady Eversford finds rest and happiness with "Comrade Jim," are the features that have made "The Call of the Heart" this week's attraction at the Lyric, one of the most successful plays of many seasons at the popular playhouse. In offering this play to the theatergoers, Left Vance has touched on a subject that has been for generations a vital issue to every American.

A splendid company is playing this week. John Nicholson and Ann Hamilton are receiving flattering plaudits from the Lyric audience. There will be matinees on Thursday and Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

"My Dixie Girl," a melodrama of the old school, with plenty of thrills and sensational incidents is being received with genuine satisfaction by patrons of the Lyric this week.

The story of the Kentucky mountain, leads contains a plot that holds the attention of the audience from start to finish. Matinees will be given every afternoon at 2:30.

Miss Estha Williams, supported by Edwin Walter, in "A Man's Game," will be next week's attraction at the Lyric.

There have been few plays presented in recent years with as many tense, dramatic situations, where plot and motive have been so cleverly and ferociously presented as in "A Man's Game."

Mr. Edwin Walter, the author, has created a character known as "Nance Nance," which, it is said, is unique in stage characterization, and which requires an artist of finished ability to truly portray.

SACRED HEART SINGERS

IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Auditorium Will Be Scene of Old - Fashioned Singing Meet This Week

Old fashioned sacred harp singing will be heard in the Atlanta auditorium on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, when the United Sacred Harp Musical association convenes there for its yearly session.

Each day the session will begin at 9 o'clock a. m. and will last practically without interruption through the afternoon, with evening meetings to follow on Friday and Saturday. The convention will end Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

J. S. James of Atlanta, is president of the association. The other officers are C. J. Griggs, vice president, and Dr. A. W. Everett, secretary. The meetings in former years have been held in the Baptist Tabernacle, but the number of singers expected to attend compelled the move to the larger quarters this year.

DEATH'S HAND FALLS ON LIEUT. JOSEPH M. SHIELDS

Valiant Member of Atlanta Fire Department Died Wednesday Night

In the death Wednesday night of Lieutenant Joseph M. Shields, aged sixty-two years, of home, corner 10th and Peachtree streets, the Atlanta fire department lost its sixth oldest member.

When Lieutenant Shields first came to Atlanta, the fire department consisted of but four companies. After three years as hoseman he was transferred to company No. 4, remaining there until his death.

The record of this valiant fire fighter was praised highly by officials of the department, and the name of his dead comrade is a name that will live in the fire department's history.

In 1901 he was killed when the truck he was driving collided with a street car and he was thrown from the truck and dragged some distance. Injuries to his spine at that time are believed to have contributed to his death in the opinion of his comrades.

Lieutenant Shields is survived by his wife and four children.

Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

START NEXT MONDAY CLEANING OUT CREEK

Sewer Committee of Council Provides Money for Work to Go Ahead

Instead of waiting for the general council to formally appropriate the money to clean out the channel of "Pachtree creek" below the city's new sewage disposal plant, the sewer committee of council at a meeting Wednesday afternoon voted to take $100 from the contingent fund of the construction department for this purpose, so that the work may be commenced without further delay, and Captain R. M. Clay, chief of construction, stated that he would put a force of hands in the creek next Monday morning.

It is estimated that the work will cost around $1,000. The county commissioners have agreed to appropriate $500, so that the city's part will be only half of the total cost.

The work is being done to prevent the creek, in times of heavy rain, from overflowing into the disposal plant.

PARK BOARD REJECTS BIDS, GETS NEW ONES

L. G. Green Insists That Contractors Be Allowed a Chance

As the result of a strenuous protest by L. G. Green, member of the city park board from the Fourth ward, the board at a special meeting Wednesday afternoon rejected the four bids which had been submitted for the building of a new refreshment stand in Grant park and advertised for new bids.

Mr. Green made the assertion that a certain contractor who is not a member of the Builders' exchange went to the office of Hents & Reed, the architects, to get specifications so that he might bid, and was turned down.

"I want every contractor in Atlanta to be allowed to bid on this work," said he. "It doesn't make any difference whether he is a member of the Builders' exchange or not."

Of the four bids before the board, that of C. J. Berghardt, for $1,046, was the lowest, and the board was about to vote on a motion to accept this bid when Mr. Green objected.

The refreshment stand is to take the place of the one which burned several months ago.

NEW WAY OF GETTING POLICEMEN FOR PARKS

Just Catch a Couple Kissing, Says J. O. Cochran, and They'll Come

A sure way to induce the police to stop automobiles from mangling the grass in Grant park when they turn around is to catch a couple kissing in the car, declared J. O. Cochran, president of the city park board, at a meeting of the improvement committee of the board Wednesday afternoon.

L. G. Green said he wouldn't care how many times they caught him kissing if the girl were pretty. That is, provided he were a single man.

Charles L. Binnun expressed the opinion that kissing in the parks is a matter calling for discretion on the part of the boy, the girl, and the policeman.

to vote on a motion to accept this bid when Mr. Green objected.

WOMEN'S FIRE BRIGADE PUTS OUT BIG BLAZE

LYNN, Mass., Sept. 11.—A woman's fire brigade put out a blaze to Lake Shore park yesterday and by prompt action prevented a possible conflagration at that resort. The brigade was organized some time ago as a fire protection body, with Mrs. Sarah Warring as chief. It has its own fire station and chemical apparatus. When flames were discovered yesterday on the roof of the home of Edward Lynch, the women responded promptly to the emergency and had the fire out before the regular department could get over the three miles of road. The damage to the house was slight.

—and Then the Handle Broke

He had just climbed into the motor car of his friend, who met him at the station, when the handle of the suitcase broke and it fell to the ground.

The bump was too much and the case broke open, throwing his clothes in the mud.

Safe to say that case wasn't bought here. Because at the price he paid—$5—we sell a genuine cowhide suit case with steel frame, brass trimmings, strong lock and stout straps. And we guarantee it to give you absolute satisfaction.

The handle is put to stay—and it does. You can hang the case around when it's filled to bursting without fear.
